Interdimensional energy field science ...After decades of constant travel, meeting and sharing with thousands of people, we know that everyone is hungry for something and there is thankfully a free source of nourishment that can eliminate all human hungers and when we tap into this source we can move into the deepest states of inner peace and contentment in ways that allow our individual presence to be more beneficial to our world, and also that as each individual comes into a state of personal harmony - by understanding and unifying all aspects of their own nature - then so too will our world be unified. Independent of ideology and good intentions, there is also a science that offers a step by step process to tune any world.

Interdimensional energy field science allows us to navigate our way through the Matrix of Creation in ways that are beneficial to all. Based on Universal Laws and the principles of the Higher Light Science, we can also use this science to unify our planet and create permanent peace independent of our religious focus. Life is also easier when we have understood that we are systems of energy and have then learnt how to be a well tuned system with everything wired perfectly so that there is no effort to existence. Interdimensional Field Science also explains how harmonics work, how to feel and be part of more nourishing rhythms. It also reveals the science to the Dreaming and how to alter the course of our own evolution in a way that benefits all.

We know by personal experience and the tenants of Universal Law, that what we focus on grows and we have seen in our own lives and felt in our hearts how movies of realities are magnetized together by a common beat and how we all influence reality in so many ways. We also know now that we all influence reality all the time, consciously or not. The alchemists among our metaphysicians have also now shared the formulas to energy field control so that we can now all move en-mass into a different harmonic within the web of Oneness and Love.

We also know now that we are not alone in the universal fields and that this is just a fact of interdimensional field science. It is also a fact that the I.D. fields magnetize us into themselves when we are healthy in heart and mind and when we desire to exist in harmony with all.

So energy field harmonics is the study of pulses and radiations that effect energy flows in the web of creation where streams of light mix constantly with waves of love that radiate in perpetual motion through the grid points of the higher dimensions. These energies pulse constantly through grid points in the matrix in an endless stream and each, as part of the matrix, is expressed differently according to the harmonics of its surrounding field and the collective consciousness of the life waves it contains.

So we also now know that field harmonics change as life waves blossom and grow to become more refined versions of themselves and that this also is constantly changing depending on what each individual stream of life - you/us - chooses to pay attention to. Hence in this series on Interdimensional Field Science & Health, Heart & Home Harmonics we offer the below video data and insights to act as door openers and field drivers to set up a system of magnetic attraction that will propel us all into a new harmonic wave.

As prophesized and witnessed by many, the doors are already open and everything is on a fast track to change and what is not of this pure hearted beat will dissolve into something different so that this new state of BEingness can be enjoyed by all. And because of all of this, collectively we have entered into a time of great peace; a time of contentment of the soul; for the soul is only contented by the purest beat of the heart. The two then create a healthy home for us to dwell in this world and our presence in turn stimulates a sweeter, more nourishing harmonic throughout the surrounding fields.

While the ancient yogis talk of the benefits of enjoying each moment, being able to relax and enjoy life is easier when ...

- We have well tuned personal systems as discussed.
- And when we have managed to create a model of reality that works for us so that our dominant emotion is gratitude.

To Do:-

- Meditations to do to rewire and re-energize our systems as per the below.

So much has been understood and shared by us all ... for example, we know now that whatever we ask of the UFI - the Universal Field of infinite Intelligence - that is beneficial for our evolution, will be given.

- This means then that we can ask and receive the keys of knowledge regarding how to enhance life in a way that serves us all.
- We can also ask to understand and experience what true perfection is in this world.
- We can also ask to experience the flow of unconditional love and the energy of wisely loving compassion and we can then ask that these experiences unfold within us all with joy, ease and grace.

- We can also intend to be tuned in such a way within the matrix of creation, that the deepest rhythms of our soul floods through us in the most supportive way, to intermingle with all that we are, to finetune us to the most nourishing harmonic waves so that all of our hungers disappear and we know deep and lasting peace.
- And we can also ask to experience true harmony in a Triple Win style so that we have no conflict in our lives or in this world on any level. This means the Win, Win, Win game - for you, your community and the greater field.
- All of this we can ask of the UFI, and then experience, as a result of our pure hearted intention.
